MODULE 0: PEER-TO-PEER ORIENTATION

M00L01 — What Is This Network?

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Think of a time someone shared their faith with you simply, without a title or platform. What made it land?
2. "You need Christ, His Word, and a willing heart" — which of those three feels most present in you right now, and which feels weakest?
3. Who is one person "one step behind" you that you could realistically walk with?
4. What fear or hesitation comes up when you imagine teaching someone else what you're learning?
5. Where in your life have you seen relationships multiply something faster than an institution could?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. In your own words, what is the "core principle" this lesson describes?
2. What two things do you NOT need in order to disciple someone else, per this lesson?
3. What verse is quoted to support entrusting truth to others, and who is it addressed to?
4. What does the lesson mean by every believer being "simultaneously a student and a teacher"?
5. Write one sentence you could say to a friend this week that reflects this lesson's core idea.

M00L02 — How the Network Works

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Looking at the four stages (New Learner, Mid-Journey, Module Complete, Network Leader) — which one are you in right now, honestly?
2. What would it feel like to move from only receiving to also teaching someone else?
3. Is there a stage here you're afraid you'll never reach? Why?
4. What's one small step that would move you toward the next stage?
5. Who modeled "Network Leader" behavior for you, even if they never used that title?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. List the four stages in this lesson's progression, in order.
2. At which stage does a person first begin leading someone else through a module?
3. What is expected of someone at the "Mid-Journey" stage?
4. What does "multiply" mean in the context of a Network Leader's role?
5. Which stage are you currently in, and what's the very next stage after it?

M00L03 — The Peer Guide Role

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you ever felt pressure to "have all the answers" when helping someone else? How did that feel?
2. "Say 'I don't know — let's find out together'" — when was the last time you admitted that to someone?
3. What would change in your relationships if you led with honesty instead of performance?
4. Who checks in on you the way this lesson describes a Peer Guide checking in on others?
5. What's one specific person you could follow up with this week, even briefly?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. According to this lesson, what is a Peer Guide explicitly NOT?
2. List three of the five responsibilities described for a Peer Guide.
3. What should a Peer Guide do at the start and end of every session?
4. Why does the lesson say a Peer Guide should share "honest experience" rather than "a polished performance"?
5. What does ongoing "follow-up between sessions" look like, per this lesson?

M00L04 — Session Structure (Every Lesson)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Which of the seven steps feels most natural to you, and which feels awkward or forced?
2. Have you ever skipped prayer at the start or end of something because it felt rushed? What happened?
3. What would it mean to actually "commit" to a Life Assignment instead of just reading it?
4. Can you currently explain a recent lesson's main idea in your own words, out loud, to someone else?
5. What's one relationship where this seven-step rhythm could actually fit naturally?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. List the seven steps of a session, in order.
2. What are you asked to do with the memory verse during a session?
3. How many discussion questions does the lesson recommend working through?
4. What is the "Checkpoint" step actually checking for?
5. What happens in the final step of a session?

M00L05 — How to Handle Questions You Cannot Answer

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Recall a time you didn't know an answer and pretended you did. What drove that?
2. Does "I don't know" feel like weakness or honesty to you right now? Why?
3. Who's someone you could genuinely say "let's ask someone who does" to, without shame?
4. What's the difference between avoiding a hard question and honestly not knowing the answer?
5. How would your relationships change if not-knowing became normal instead of hidden?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. List the three honest responses this lesson recommends for a question you can't answer.
2. What three things does the lesson say to NEVER do when stuck?
3. Why does the lesson warn against guessing or making up an answer?
4. What does "let's look at it together" actually invite the other person to do?
5. Give an example of a question you might genuinely not know the answer to, and which of the three responses you'd use.

M00L06 — What to Do When Someone Drops Out

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you ever "dropped out" of something spiritual and wished someone had followed up?
2. What does it feel like to be pursued without pressure, versus chased with guilt?
3. Is there someone you've quietly let go of following up with? What got in the way for you?
4. How do you personally want to be treated if you go quiet on something?
5. What would "praying for them consistently whether or not they return" look like in practice?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Within how many hours should follow-up happen, per this lesson?
2. What single question does the lesson recommend asking someone who dropped out?
3. List two options offered to make it easier for someone to return.
4. According to this lesson, what is a dropped-out learner actually a sign of?
5. Why does the lesson specifically say "no guilt, just care"?

MODULE 1: YOUR NEW IDENTITY IN CHRIST

M01L01 — Regeneration (Being Born Again)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Before you came to Christ, what were you living for?
2. What changed in your desires the moment you were actually born again?
3. Which piece of "evidence of regeneration" listed in the lesson do you see most clearly in your own life right now?
4. Is there an area where you still feel more "old self" than "new"?
5. How would you explain what happened to you, in your own words, to someone who's never heard this?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. According to this lesson, what does regeneration transition a person from and to?
2. What two verses are cited as support for this definition?
3. What two conditions does the lesson say must be true for regeneration to occur in a person?
4. List two pieces of "evidence of regeneration" mentioned in the lesson.
5. Why does the lesson say physical life does not guarantee spiritual life?

M01L02 — Justification

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you ever carried guilt for something you knew was already forgiven? What did that feel like?
2. What does it mean to you, personally, to be declared "not guilty" by God rather than just excused?
3. Where do you still try to earn what's already been freely given?
4. How would living genuinely convinced of your justification change one specific relationship or habit?
5. What's the difference between feeling righteous and being declared righteous?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. In your own words, define justification as this lesson presents it.
2. What "verdict reversal" does justification describe?
3. Is justification received by works or by grace, according to this lesson?
4. What does it mean that God "imputes" Christ's righteousness to a believer?
5. Why does the lesson say justification is necessary for anyone to stand before God's judgment?

M01L03 — Adoption

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Do you relate to God more as a judge or as a Father right now? Why?
2. What would change if you actually believed you could call God "Abba"?
3. Have you experienced rejection that makes "permanent, irreversible" adoption hard to believe?
4. What rights or privileges from this lesson feel most unfamiliar to you personally?
5. Who in your life reflects healthy fatherhood or family belonging to you?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. What problem does justification solve, and what different problem does adoption solve?
2. What term does the lesson use to describe the right to call God "Abba," and which verses support it?
3. Why does the lesson say adoption is permanent and irreversible?
4. List two rights or privileges adoption confers that justification alone does not.
5. In your own words, explain the relational shift adoption represents.

M01L04 — Grace & Faith

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Where in your life do you still try to "earn" God's favor?
2. What's the difference between grace and mercy, and where have you experienced each?
3. Read Ephesians 2:8-9 aloud. What word or phrase stands out to you today?
4. Why is human inability actually good news in this lesson's framing?
5. What would change in you if you truly believed you couldn't boast about your own salvation?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define grace as this lesson presents it, in your own words.
2. What's the difference between grace and mercy per this lesson?
3. Quote or closely paraphrase Ephesians 2:8-9.
4. What two reasons does the lesson give for why grace was necessary (human inability, divine initiative)?
5. Why does the lesson emphasize "not by works, so that no one can boast"?

M01L05 — New Creation & Fourfold Change

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. What part of your "old self" surprised you by actually being gone?
2. The lesson distinguishes new creation from reformation, rehabilitation, and renewal — which of those three describes how you used to think change happened?
3. Where do you still expect yourself to just "try harder" instead of trusting you're already new?
4. What's one area where you can see genuine newness, not just improvement, in your life?
5. How would you explain 2 Corinthians 5:17 to someone in your own words?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Quote or closely paraphrase 2 Corinthians 5:17.
2. What does the Greek term for "new creation" indicate, according to this lesson?
3. List the three things this lesson says "new creation" is NOT (reformation, rehabilitation, renewal).
4. Why does the lesson insist this is "creation," not just improvement?
5. In your own words, explain the difference between fixing an old thing and creating something new.

M01REVIEW — Module 1 Discussion & Review

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Looking back across Regeneration, Justification, Adoption, Grace & Faith, and New Creation — which one landed hardest for you, and why?
2. Which of these five truths do you still need to hear again?
3. If you had to explain your "new identity in Christ" in one sentence to a stranger, what would you say?
4. What's one specific way this module has already changed how you see yourself this week?
5. Who's one person you could walk through this whole module with as their peer guide?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Name all five topics covered in Module 1, in order.
2. Which topic solves the legal problem of sin, and which solves the relational problem?
3. What single word does the lesson use for the kind of "creation" a believer becomes?
4. Explain, in your own words, how grace and faith relate to each other.
5. Summarize Module 1's overall message in 2-3 sentences, in your own words.

MODULE 2: KNOWING GOD

M02L01 — Theology Proper (Definition & Essential Nature)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. What comes to mind first when you hear the word "God" — is it closer to a person or a force?
2. How has your view of who God is changed since you began following Christ?
3. The lesson says worship requires accurate knowledge of God. Where might inaccurate knowledge be shaping how you worship?
4. What's one attribute of God you feel you understand well, and one you barely understand at all?
5. If someone asked you "who is God, really?" right now, what would you actually say?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define theology proper in your own words.
2. What two Greek words make up the term "theology," and what do they mean?
3. Why does the lesson say this is "the most fundamental of all theological disciplines"?
4. According to this lesson, why can't we truly worship what we do not know?
5. What Scripture reference does the lesson connect to accurate worship?

M02L02 — The Trinity

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Has the idea of the Trinity ever confused or troubled you? What resolved (or didn't resolve) that confusion?
2. Which analogy for the Trinity have you heard before, and how did this lesson's water analogy compare?
3. Why might it matter, practically, that God is relational within Himself (Father, Son, Spirit) even before creation existed?
4. Do you relate to God mostly through one person of the Trinity? Which one, and why?
5. What's one wrong idea about the Trinity you've heard before that this lesson corrects?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define the Trinity in your own words.
2. Name the three errors this lesson explicitly rejects (tritheism, modalism, subordinationism/Arianism).
3. What analogy does the lesson use to illustrate the Trinity, and what is one limitation of that analogy?
4. What verse is cited to show the Father is God?
5. Why is it wrong to describe the Trinity as "one person appearing in three modes"?

M02L03 — Attributes of Godness

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Which of God's unique attributes (spirituality, self-existence/aseity, etc.) makes Him feel most "other" than you?
2. Does knowing God depends on nothing outside Himself change how you view your own dependence on Him?
3. Have you ever tried to represent or picture God in a way that shrinks who He actually is?
4. What would it look like to genuinely rest in the fact that God is not limited by space or physical laws?
5. Which attribute in this lesson increases your sense of awe the most right now?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define "spirituality" as an attribute of God, per this lesson.
2. What does "aseity" (self-existence) mean, and what verse supports it?
3. Why can't God be represented by idols, according to this lesson?
4. What is the implication of God's spirituality for how we approach worship?
5. Name one Scripture reference used to support God's self-existence.

M02L04 — Attributes of Moral Perfection

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Where in your life do you resist the idea that God's holiness demands cleansing before you can approach Him?
2. How do you personally hold together God's justice and God's mercy?
3. Does the cross feel to you like it demonstrates both justice and love equally? Why or why not?
4. What's an area where you know something is wrong but haven't let God's holiness confront it yet?
5. How does knowing God always acts rightly change how you handle situations that feel unfair?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define God's holiness as presented in this lesson.
2. What does righteousness/justice mean, according to this lesson?
3. What does the lesson say the cross demonstrates about God's character?
4. Why does the lesson say sin cannot dwell with God?
5. List the two moral attributes covered in this lesson.

M02L05 — God the Father

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. What was your earthly father's example like, and how has that shaped how you relate to God the Father?
2. Do you experience God more as a source of security or as a distant authority? Why?
3. What would change if you truly believed the Father was the planner of your salvation, not just a distant observer?
4. Who do you pray to most often — the Father, the Son, or the Spirit — and why?
5. What's one way this lesson's description of Fatherhood corrects a wrong picture you've carried?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. List three roles of God the Father named in this lesson.
2. What does the lesson say Christ submits to?
3. Why does the lesson say Fatherhood reveals God as a person, not an abstract force?
4. What Scripture references support the Father's authority in the divine economy?
5. How does the Father's role provide security, according to this lesson?

M02L06 — God the Son (Christology)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. What does it mean to you personally that Jesus is fully God and fully man at the same time?
2. Have you ever reduced Jesus to just a good teacher or moral example? What corrected that?
3. Why does the lesson say removing Jesus leaves "no Christianity"? Do you actually live like that's true?
4. What part of Christ's two natures (fully God, fully man) comforts you most right now?
5. How would your prayers change if you related to Jesus as fully God AND fully human, understanding your struggles?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define Christology in your own words.
2. What two natures does the lesson say are united in Christ's one person?
3. Why does the lesson call Christ's person "the central doctrine of Christianity"?
4. What three things does the lesson say Christ's identity determines?
5. Explain in your own words why the lesson says "Christianity is Christ."

M02L07 — God the Holy Spirit (Pneumatology)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you thought of the Holy Spirit as a force rather than a person? How does this lesson challenge that?
2. What would change in your daily life if you treated the Spirit as fully God, co-equal with the Father and Son?
3. Where do you most need the Spirit to "apply" salvation to your actual daily experience right now?
4. Do you invite the Spirit's presence, or mostly ignore Him until you need help?
5. What's the difference, for you personally, between knowing about salvation and experiencing it through the Spirit?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define pneumatology and its Greek root.
2. What does the lesson mean by calling the Spirit "the executive of the Godhead"?
3. Why does the lesson say we'd only know ABOUT salvation without the Spirit?
4. What relationship does the Spirit have to the Father and Son, per this lesson?
5. Summarize this lesson's core claim about the Spirit's essential role.

M02REVIEW — Module 2 Discussion & Review

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Which of God's attributes from this module has most reshaped how you see Him?
2. Where do you tend to overemphasize one person of the Trinity and neglect the others?
3. What false picture of God did this module correct in you?
4. How would you now answer someone who asks "what is God like"?
5. What's one attribute of God you want to keep coming back to and meditating on?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Name all seven topics covered in Module 2, in order.
2. Explain the Trinity in your own words, avoiding the three errors this module named.
3. List two attributes of Godness and two attributes of moral perfection.
4. Summarize the distinct roles of Father, Son, and Spirit in one sentence each.
5. Summarize Module 2's overall message in 2-3 sentences, in your own words.

MODULE 3: THE LORDSHIP OF JESUS CHRIST

M03L01 — Lordship

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Is there an area of your life you've kept out of Jesus's authority? What is it?
2. What does "Jesus is Lord" cost you practically, not just as a statement of belief?
3. Where do you say Jesus is Lord with your words but not your choices?
4. How would today look different if you lived like Jesus owned every part of it?
5. What holds you back from full submission in that one area you named above?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define Lordship as this lesson presents it.
2. What two verses are cited for the confession "Jesus is Lord"?
3. Why does the lesson say denying Christ's lordship is a problem, Christologically?
4. What does "practical submission" mean in the context of this lesson?
5. Explain, in your own words, why Lordship is necessary, not optional.

M03L02 — Discipleship

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Are you more of a "student of information" or an "apprentice of a way of life" right now?
2. What's one way your life actually looks different because you're following Jesus, not just believing facts about Him?
3. Who is discipling you, and who are you discipling?
4. What does the Great Commission's call to "make disciples," not just converts, change about how you see your own faith?
5. Where do you feel most like an apprentice still learning, rather than someone who's arrived?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define discipleship and its Greek root word.
2. What is the Great Commission actually calling believers to do, per this lesson?
3. Explain the difference between a "student of information" and "an apprentice of a way of life."
4. What Scripture reference commands discipleship?
5. In your own words, explain why disciple-making, not just conversion, is the goal.

M03L03 — The Kingdom of God

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Where have you seen the Kingdom of God already breaking into your everyday life?
2. What does praying "your kingdom come" actually ask God to do in you, specifically?
3. Do you live more aware of the Kingdom's future hope or its present reality? Why?
4. What part of your life still resists God's reign rather than welcoming it?
5. How does knowing the Kingdom is both "already" and "not yet" change how you handle disappointment?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define the Kingdom of God as this lesson presents it.
2. What does it mean that the Kingdom is both "present" and "future"?
3. What was Jesus's primary message, according to the Scripture references given?
4. What does the Lord's Prayer petition regarding the Kingdom?
5. Explain in your own words why the Kingdom mattered so much to Jesus's ministry.

M03L04 — The Exaltation of Christ

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. What does Christ's willingness to empty Himself teach you about your own posture toward others?
2. Where in your life do you resist "the path of humiliation" before any "path of exaltation"?
3. How does Christ's obedience "even to death on a cross" challenge your own obedience when it's costly?
4. What does it mean to you that God vindicated Jesus through resurrection after such humiliation?
5. Is there an area where you're waiting for exaltation but skipping the humbling first?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. List the three steps of Christ's humiliation named in this lesson.
2. List the elements of Christ's exaltation named in this lesson.
3. What Scripture passage is this lesson based on?
4. What does "emptying" mean in this lesson — what was Christ NOT emptied of?
5. Explain, in your own words, the path from humiliation to exaltation.

M03L05 — The Cost of Following Jesus

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you honestly "counted the cost" of following Jesus, or did you skip that step?
2. What would it cost you, specifically, to carry your cross this week?
3. Is there a comfort or identity you're holding onto that competes with full discipleship?
4. How do you respond when following Jesus brings shame or misunderstanding from others?
5. What's one hard saying of Jesus from this lesson that you still wrestle with?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. What passage is "the hard sayings of Jesus" drawn from in this lesson?
2. What did carrying a cross actually represent in Jesus's time, per this lesson?
3. Why does the lesson say Jesus "turned and told them the truth" rather than just welcoming the crowd?
4. What does it mean to "carry your cross" according to this lesson?
5. Summarize, in your own words, what "counting the cost" means for a follower of Jesus.

M03REVIEW — Module 3 Discussion & Review

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. How has your understanding of Jesus's Lordship changed after this module?
2. Where is God currently asking you to count the cost of following Him more fully?
3. What's the difference, for you personally, between believing in Jesus and being discipled by Him?
4. Which lesson in this module confronted you the most, and why?
5. What's one concrete way you'll live differently because of what you learned in Module 3?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Name all five topics covered in Module 3, in order.
2. Explain how Lordship and discipleship relate to each other.
3. Summarize the Kingdom of God in your own words.
4. Explain Christ's humiliation-to-exaltation pattern in 2-3 sentences.
5. Summarize Module 3's overall message in 2-3 sentences, in your own words.

MODULE 4: THE HOLY SPIRIT AND YOU

M04L01 — Pneumatology (Doctrine of the Holy Spirit)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Why do you think the Spirit is described as "the least understood person of the Trinity"? Is that true for you?
2. What part of the Spirit's work (creation, revelation, salvation, sanctification) do you experience most consciously?
3. How would your prayer life change if you related to the Spirit as a person you know, not a concept you study?
4. Where do you sense the Spirit is currently working in you, even if you haven't named it?
5. What question about the Holy Spirit do you most want answered by the end of this module?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define pneumatology and its scope, per this lesson.
2. What four things does the lesson say pneumatology addresses (who/what/how)?
3. Why does the lesson call this study "critical"?
4. What relationship does the Spirit have to believers, per this lesson?
5. Summarize, in your own words, why understanding the Spirit's person and work matters.

M04L02 — Personhood of the Holy Spirit

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you related to the Spirit more like an "it" (a force) than a "He" (a person)? What would change if you didn't?
2. What does it mean to you that the Spirit can be grieved (Ephesians 4:30)?
3. Where have you sensed the Spirit's will directing you, even subtly?
4. How would trusting the Spirit as a person, not an energy, change how you handle fear or uncertainty?
5. What's one way you could actually relate to the Spirit today, not just study Him?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. List the three faculties this lesson says prove the Spirit's personhood (intellect, emotion, will).
2. What verse shows the Spirit "feels"?
3. What verse shows the Spirit "decides"?
4. Why does personhood matter for worship, according to this lesson?
5. Explain, in your own words, the difference between relating to a force and relating to a person.

M04L03 — Deity of the Holy Spirit

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Does it change anything for you to know the Spirit is fully God, not a lesser being?
2. Where do you need to trust the Spirit's power more than you currently do?
3. What would it look like to worship the Spirit directly, not just the Father and Son?
4. How does the Spirit's deity affect your confidence that His work in you is genuinely God's work?
5. What's one area of your life you haven't yet surrendered to the Spirit's leading?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define the deity of the Holy Spirit as presented in this lesson.
2. Why does the lesson say deity is "essential" — what would be lost if the Spirit were not God?
3. What co-equal, co-eternal relationship does the Spirit share with the Father and Son?
4. Why can we trust the Spirit's revelation, according to this lesson?
5. Summarize, in your own words, why the Spirit's deity matters practically, not just theologically.

M04L04 — Baptism of the Spirit

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you ever confused Spirit baptism with an experience to chase, rather than a fact already true of you?
2. What does it mean to you that all believers share equally in this baptism?
3. How does knowing you're already placed into Christ's body change how you see other believers?
4. Where do you need to simply recognize a truth about your identity rather than seek a new experience?
5. What unity does this truth create between you and believers very different from you?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define Spirit baptism as this lesson presents it.
2. Does Spirit baptism happen once or repeatedly, per this lesson?
3. What unity does Spirit baptism create among believers?
4. What two verses are cited to support this doctrine?
5. Explain, in your own words, why the lesson says this is "a fact to recognize," not an experience to seek.

M04L05 — Filling of the Spirit

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. When did you last consciously yield control to the Spirit rather than your own will?
2. What's the difference, practically, between being filled once and needing repeated filling?
3. Where do you currently see the Spirit's power for witness lacking in your life?
4. What does "walking by the Spirit" look like for you this week, specifically?
5. What competes most for control in your life instead of the Spirit?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define the filling of the Spirit and how it differs from indwelling and baptism.
2. Is filling permanent or repeated/conditional, per this lesson?
3. What verse connects filling to victory over sin?
4. What verse connects filling to power for witness?
5. Explain, in your own words, why filling is conditional upon yieldedness.

M04L06 — The Spirit filled Life

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Do you experience the Spirit-filled life as a single past event or a moment-by-moment reality?
2. Where do you most need Christlike character right now, in a specific relationship or situation?
3. What would it look like to depend on the Spirit today rather than your own effort?
4. How do you currently pursue holiness — through willpower or through dependence on the Spirit?
5. What's one situation this week where you could consciously choose Spirit-dependence over self-reliance?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define the Spirit-filled life as "the normal Christian life," per this lesson.
2. Is it a single crisis experience or ongoing dependence, according to the lesson?
3. List three results of the Spirit-filled life named in this lesson.
4. What verse is cited regarding holiness and walking by the Spirit?
5. Summarize, in your own words, what "moment-by-moment dependence" actually looks like.

M04L07 — Fruit of the Spirit (Overview)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Which fruit of the Spirit do you see growing most in your life right now?
2. Which fruit feels most absent, and why do you think that is?
3. Does your life currently give evidence that "the tree is alive"?
4. What relationship in your life would most benefit from more of the Spirit's fruit?
5. How is fruit different from an achievement you produce through effort alone?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define the fruit of the Spirit as this lesson presents it.
2. Why does the lesson say fruit is "evidence of life"?
3. What verse connects fruit to being recognized as a disciple?
4. Is fruit something you produce, or something the Spirit produces through you, per this lesson?
5. Explain, in your own words, what "spontaneous, supernatural production of Christlike character" means.

M04L08 — Fruit of the Spirit (Detailed: Love, Joy, Peace, Patience, Kindness)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Where in your life is agape love — willful, active benevolence — currently being tested?
2. Do you love people who reject you, or only people who love you back?
3. Which of these five (love, joy, peace, patience, kindness) do you most need to grow in right now?
4. What's the difference for you between feeling loving and actually acting in love?
5. Who is someone you find hard to show kindness to, and why?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define agape love as presented in this lesson.
2. How does agape differ from philia and eros, per this lesson?
3. Why does the lesson call love "the supreme virtue"?
4. List the five fruits covered in this lesson's detailed section.
5. Explain, in your own words, why agape "continues when rejected."

M04L09 — Fruit of the Spirit (Detailed: Goodness, Faithfulness, Gentleness, Self-Control)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Where do you need self-control most right now — in words, habits, or thoughts?
2. How is goodness different from just being nice, per this lesson's distinction?
3. Where has your faithfulness been tested recently?
4. What would it look like to actively confront something wrong with goodness, not just avoid it?
5. Which of these four fruits do you most want the Spirit to grow in you this season?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define goodness (agathosyne) as this lesson presents it.
2. How does goodness differ from kindness, per this lesson?
3. What verse connects believers to good works?
4. List the four fruits covered in this lesson.
5. Explain, in your own words, why the lesson calls goodness "virtue energized."

M04L10 — Gifts of the Spirit

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Do you know what spiritual gift(s) you've been given? How have you seen them at work?
2. Have you ever used a gift for personal recognition rather than the church's benefit?
3. Where is there a need around you that your gifting could actually meet?
4. What's the difference, for you, between a natural talent and a Spirit-given gift?
5. How does knowing gifts are "for the common good" change how you think about using yours?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define spiritual gifts as this lesson presents them.
2. Are gifts natural talents developed by effort, or divine enablements, per this lesson?
3. What verse explains the purpose of gifts (equipping for service)?
4. Who distributes spiritual gifts, according to this lesson?
5. Explain, in your own words, why gifts are for the church's benefit, not personal gain.

M04L11 — Gifts of the Spirit (in detail)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Which spiritual gift do you suspect you may have, based on what comes naturally when serving others?
2. Have you ever needed a "word of wisdom" moment — insight beyond your own understanding?
3. Where do you need to ask God for wisdom in a complex situation right now?
4. How can you begin testing or exploring what your specific gifts might be?
5. Who could you ask to help you identify your gifts, since this is meant to be discovered in community?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define "word of wisdom" as presented in this lesson.
2. What two biblical examples does the lesson give for wisdom in action?
3. Why is word of wisdom described as "insight into divine purpose applied to practical circumstances"?
4. What distinguishes word of wisdom from ordinary human wisdom, per this lesson?
5. Summarize, in your own words, why God gives specific gifts like this one.

M04REVIEW — Module 4 Discussion & Review

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. How has your relationship with the Holy Spirit changed after this module?
2. Which fruit of the Spirit do you most want to grow in over the next month?
3. Do you know your spiritual gift(s)? If not, what's your next step to find out?
4. Where do you need the Spirit's filling more consciously in your daily life?
5. What's one truth from this module you want to keep returning to?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Name all eleven topics covered in Module 4, in order.
2. Explain the difference between indwelling, baptism, and filling of the Spirit.
3. List all nine fruits of the Spirit mentioned across this module's lessons.
4. Explain, in your own words, the purpose of spiritual gifts in the church.
5. Summarize Module 4's overall message in 2-3 sentences, in your own words.

MODULE 5: THE BIBLE—GOD'S WORD TO YOU

M05L01 — Bibliology (Doctrine of Scripture)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. How would you answer someone who asked you "why can we trust the Bible"?
2. What's your current relationship with Scripture — obligation, curiosity, or genuine hunger?
3. Where has Scripture already shaped a decision you've made?
4. What questions about the Bible's origin or trustworthiness do you still carry?
5. How central is the Bible to your actual daily life right now, honestly?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define bibliology and its scope, per this lesson.
2. List the four questions this lesson says bibliology answers.
3. Why does the lesson call the Bible "the source of all Christian" (doctrine/practice)?
4. What does bibliology address regarding interpretation and application?
5. Summarize, in your own words, why this study is foundational.

M05L02 — Revelation (General & Special)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Where have you seen God reveal Himself through creation, apart from Scripture?
2. Why do you think human reason alone isn't enough to discover God?
3. Has sin ever darkened your ability to perceive spiritual truth, looking back?
4. What's the difference, for you, between knowing facts about God and having Him revealed to you?
5. How does this lesson change how urgently you value Scripture as revelation, not just information?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define revelation as this lesson presents it.
2. List the two reasons revelation is necessary (limitation, sin).
3. What verse is cited regarding human minds being darkened by sin?
4. Why can't humans discover an infinite God by reason alone, per this lesson?
5. Explain, in your own words, the difference between general and special revelation.

M05L03 — Inspiration

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Does it change how you read Scripture to know it's "God-breathed," not just human wisdom?
2. Where do you sometimes treat the Bible as optional advice rather than authoritative truth?
3. What would change if you truly believed every word bound your conscience?
4. How do you personally reconcile human authorship with divine authorship of Scripture?
5. What's one passage that feels most clearly "more than human" to you?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define inspiration and its Greek root (theopneustos).
2. What does the lesson say inspiration means for the human authors of Scripture?
3. Why does the lesson say inspiration is essential — what's at stake if Scripture is merely human opinion?
4. What three qualities does inspiration guarantee about Scripture (authoritative, trustworthy, without error)?
5. Explain, in your own words, how the Spirit "superintended" human authors.

M05L04 — Inerrancy

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you ever doubted a part of the Bible? What resolved (or didn't resolve) that doubt?
2. How does trusting Scripture's truthfulness change how you approach a hard passage?
3. Where do you need to trust what the Bible affirms even when it's uncomfortable?
4. What's the difference, for you, between the Bible being exhaustive and the Bible being true in what it does say?
5. How would your confidence change if you fully trusted inerrancy in your daily reading?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define inerrancy as this lesson presents it.
2. Does inerrancy claim the Bible is exhaustive, or true in what it affirms? Explain.
3. What logical argument does the lesson give connecting God's truthfulness to Scripture's inerrancy?
4. What two verses support the claim that God cannot lie?
5. Explain, in your own words, why inerrancy matters logically, not just devotionally.

M05L05 — Authority & Sufficiency

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Where in your life do you act as your own final authority instead of submitting to Scripture?
2. What does it mean to you that the Bible has the right to dictate what you believe and how you live?
3. How does "radical autonomy" show up in your own culture or your own heart?
4. Where do you need an objective standard rather than your own shifting feelings?
5. What's one area where you'd rather trust your own judgment than Scripture's authority?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define authority as this lesson presents it.
2. Where does the Bible's authority derive from, according to this lesson?
3. Why does the lesson say we live in "an age of radical autonomy"?
4. What problem does an objective, unchanging standard solve, per this lesson?
5. Explain, in your own words, why the Bible's authority is not up for negotiation.

M05L06 — Illumination & Scripture Terminology

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you ever read a familiar passage and suddenly understood it differently? What changed?
2. Where do you need the Spirit to open your eyes to something already in Scripture?
3. How does illumination differ from just studying harder on your own?
4. What's a passage you've read many times but never fully grasped?
5. How does human blindness described in this lesson show up in people who reject Scripture as foolishness?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define illumination as this lesson presents it.
2. Does illumination give new revelation, or open our eyes to what's already there? Explain.
3. What verse is cited regarding "the person without the Spirit"?
4. Why is illumination necessary, according to this lesson?
5. Explain, in your own words, the difference between inspiration and illumination.

M05L07 — Translation & Interpretation/Exegesis/Application

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you ever thought about how many people worked to get Scripture into your own language?
2. Does knowing the Bible is in 3,500+ languages change how you value having access to it?
3. Where do you tend to skip interpretation and jump straight to application, possibly missing the actual meaning?
4. What's one passage you've misapplied because you didn't first understand its original context?
5. How does knowing the gospel is for "all nations" shape how you think about translation work?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define translation as this lesson presents it.
2. Why is translation necessary, according to the Scripture reference given?
3. How many languages has the Bible been translated into, per this lesson, and what percentage of the world does that reach?
4. Name one translation philosophy mentioned in this lesson (e.g. Formal Equivalence).
5. Explain, in your own words, the difference between translation, interpretation/exegesis, and application.

M05REVIEW — Module 5 Discussion & Review

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. How has your confidence in Scripture's trustworthiness grown through this module?
2. Where do you need to submit to the Bible's authority more fully in your life right now?
3. What's the difference, for you now, between inspiration, inerrancy, and illumination?
4. Which lesson in this module most changed how you read the Bible?
5. What's one practical way you'll engage Scripture differently after this module?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Name all seven topics covered in Module 5, in order.
2. Explain the relationship between revelation, inspiration, and inerrancy.
3. What is the difference between illumination and interpretation?
4. Why does the Bible's authority matter practically, not just doctrinally?
5. Summarize Module 5's overall message in 2-3 sentences, in your own words.

MODULE 6: PRAYER—TALKING WITH GOD

M06L01 — Prayer Definition (Proseuche) & ACTS Overview

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. How would you describe your current prayer life — consistent, sporadic, or nearly absent?
2. Which part of ACTS (Adoration, Confession, Thanksgiving, Supplication) do you practice most, and which least?
3. What does "personal communication with God" mean to you, practically, today?
4. Where do your prayers tend to be mostly requests, with little adoration or confession?
5. What would change if you prayed through all four ACTS elements this week?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define prayer and its Greek root (proseuche).
2. List the four elements of the ACTS acronym.
3. What verse commands continual prayer?
4. Why does the lesson say prayer is essential, not optional?
5. Explain, in your own words, what each letter of ACTS represents.

M06L02 — Adoration

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. When did you last worship God for who He is, apart from asking Him for anything?
2. How does your perspective on your problems shift when you behold God's greatness first?
3. What attribute of God could you adore Him for right now, before anything else?
4. Why do you think adoration is placed first in the Lord's Prayer?
5. What keeps you from starting prayer with adoration instead of requests?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define adoration as this lesson presents it.
2. Why does adoration come first, according to this lesson?
3. What phrase from the Lord's Prayer illustrates adoration?
4. What's the difference between adoration and thanksgiving, per this lesson's framing?
5. Explain, in your own words, why adoration "orients our hearts correctly."

M06L03 — Confession

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Is there sin you've been avoiding naming honestly to God?
2. What's the difference for you between feeling guilty and actually confessing?
3. How does unconfessed sin currently affect your closeness with God, even if your relationship with Him is secure?
4. What would it look like to confess something specific this week, not vaguely?
5. Who could you be appropriately honest with about a struggle, not just God?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define confession and its Greek root (homologeō).
2. What verse promises forgiveness upon confession?
3. Why does the lesson say confession requires "taking responsibility without excuse"?
4. What does unconfessed sin hinder, according to this lesson?
5. Explain, in your own words, the difference between confession and merely feeling bad.

M06L04 — Thanksgiving

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. What's something you've overlooked as a gift from God rather than something you earned?
2. Where does entitlement or bitterness show up in your life instead of gratitude?
3. Can you give thanks "in all circumstances," even hard ones, right now? Why or why not?
4. What's one specific thing you're genuinely thankful for today?
5. How does thanksgiving combat anxiety in your own experience?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define thanksgiving as this lesson presents it.
2. What verse commands giving thanks "in all circumstances"?
3. What three things does the lesson say thanksgiving combats (entitlement, bitterness, anxiety)?
4. Why does the lesson say thanksgiving is God's will, not just a suggestion?
5. Explain, in your own words, what it means that "every good gift comes from above."

M06L05 — Supplication/Intercession & The Lord's Prayer

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Who is someone you could intercede for specifically this week?
2. Do you ask God for things easily, or do you feel guilty asking?
3. How does prayer "preparing you to receive" change how you view unanswered requests?
4. What does it mean to you that asking acknowledges dependence on God?
5. Where has God invited you into His work through a specific prayer request?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define supplication and intercession, distinguishing the two.
2. List the three reasons this lesson gives for why God wants us to ask.
3. What does "participation" mean in the context of prayer, per this lesson?
4. What model prayer is referenced in this lesson?
5. Explain, in your own words, how prayer "prepares us to receive."

M06L06 — Prayer Postures & Unanswered Prayer

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Does your physical posture during prayer reflect your heart's actual posture?
2. Have you experienced unanswered prayer? How did you process that?
3. Which posture (kneeling, standing, lifting hands) do you find most meaningful, and why?
4. What would change if you prayed with your body engaged, not just your mind?
5. How do you currently handle disappointment when prayers seem to go unanswered?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. List three prayer postures mentioned in this lesson and what each expresses.
2. Why does the lesson say "our bodies affect our hearts"?
3. What does kneeling express, per this lesson?
4. What does lifting hands express, per this lesson?
5. Explain, in your own words, why physical posture isn't just symbolic but formative.

M06L07 — Prayer as Relationship & Developing a Prayer Life

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Do you treat prayer more like a vending machine or like a relationship? Be honest.
2. What does it mean to you that Jesus calls you "friend," not just servant?
3. What's one practical step you could take this week to develop a more consistent prayer life?
4. Where do you most need to know God rather than just get something from Him?
5. How would your prayer life change if the goal shifted from changed circumstances to changed you?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define prayer as relationship, per this lesson.
2. What verse is cited regarding being called "friends," not servants?
3. What does the lesson say is NOT the primary purpose of prayer?
4. What three relational analogies does the lesson use (child/father, creature/Creator, bride/Bridegroom)?
5. Explain, in your own words, why knowing God is prayer's ultimate goal.

M06REVIEW — Module 6 Discussion & Review

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. How has your prayer life already started to change through this module?
2. Which ACTS element do you most want to grow in?
3. What's one honest confession you need to bring to God this week?
4. Who is one person you could commit to interceding for regularly?
5. What's your plan for developing a more consistent prayer rhythm?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Name all seven topics covered in Module 6, in order.
2. Explain the ACTS framework and what each letter stands for.
3. What's the difference between supplication and intercession?
4. Why do prayer postures matter, according to this module?
5. Summarize Module 6's overall message in 2-3 sentences, in your own words.

MODULE 7: THE CHURCH—YOUR NEW FAMILY

M07L01 — Ecclesiology (Doctrine of the Church)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. How central is the church to your actual life right now, versus how central it should be?
2. Have you ever treated church attendance as optional? What shaped that view?
3. What does "spurring one another on" actually look like in your relationships right now?
4. Where do you need the church's encouragement that you've been avoiding?
5. What would change if you saw the church as essential, not just helpful?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define ecclesiology and its scope, per this lesson.
2. List the four questions this lesson says ecclesiology answers.
3. What verse is cited regarding spurring one another toward love and good deeds?
4. Why does the lesson say the church is "not optional for Christians"?
5. Summarize, in your own words, why this doctrine matters practically.

M07L02 — The Universal Church

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Does it change your perspective to know you're part of believers across all times and places, not just your local group?
2. Where have you felt isolated in your faith, forgetting you're part of something global?
3. What does it mean to you personally that this identity transcends denomination?
4. How does knowing the church is eternal, not just an institution, shape your commitment to it?
5. What's one way you could remember your connection to the global, historic church this week?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define the universal church as this lesson presents it.
2. From what point in history does the universal church's membership begin?
3. List three images the lesson uses for the universal church (body, family, temple).
4. Why does the lesson say this identity matters — what does it give us beyond a local congregation?
5. Explain, in your own words, the difference between the universal church and a local congregation.

M07L03 — The Local Church

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Are you currently part of a local church? If not, what's held you back?
2. Where does your faith become "visible and practical" through a specific local community?
3. What would you lose spiritually if you only related to God privately, with no local church?
4. How committed are you to a specific congregation right now, honestly?
5. What's one way you could invest more deeply in your local church this month?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define the local church as this lesson presents it.
2. Why is the local church necessary, even though the universal church is real?
3. List the marks of a local church mentioned in this lesson (gathering, worship, ordinances, leadership).
4. What does the lesson say happens in a local church that can't happen through the universal church alone?
5. Explain, in your own words, the relationship between the universal and local church.

M07L04 — Church Membership

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Are you a committed member or a casual attender of a church right now?
2. What fear or hesitation keeps you from formal commitment to a local church?
3. How would accountability to a specific body of believers change your walk with Christ?
4. What does it mean to you that leaders "keep watch over your souls"?
5. What's one step you could take toward genuine membership, not just attendance?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define church membership as this lesson presents it.
2. What verse is cited regarding obeying and submitting to leaders?
3. What does membership distinguish, per this lesson (casual attenders vs. committed members)?
4. List two reasons membership is important, according to this lesson.
5. Explain, in your own words, why accountability requires formal commitment, not just attendance.

M07L05 — Church Leadership (Elders/Pastors/Overseers)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. How do you currently relate to leadership in your church — with trust, suspicion, or indifference?
2. What does it mean to you that leaders will give an account for how they shepherd you?
3. Have you prayed for your church's leaders recently?
4. Where do you need to submit to godly leadership rather than resist it?
5. What would change if you saw leaders as shepherds protecting you, not just authority figures?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define church leadership as this lesson presents it.
2. What titles are used interchangeably for this office, per this lesson (elders/pastors/overseers/bishops)?
3. What verse commands leaders to "keep watch" and "be shepherds"?
4. What two tasks does the lesson assign to elders (teach and govern)?
5. Explain, in your own words, why leadership is necessary, not just organizational.

M07L06 — Church Leadership (Deacons)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Where do you serve practically in your church, if at all?
2. What does the word "deacon" (servant) reveal about the heart this role requires?
3. Have you ever served in a way that freed up others to focus on their calling?
4. What practical need around you could you meet, even in a small way?
5. How does Acts 6's example of caring for widows challenge how your church cares for the vulnerable?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define "deacon" and its Greek root (diakonos).
2. In what chapter of Acts was this office established, and for what original purpose?
3. Why are deacons necessary, according to this lesson?
4. What does the lesson say deacons free up elders to focus on?
5. Explain, in your own words, why practical service matters as much as spiritual leadership.

M07L07 — Spiritual Gifts in the Church & Church Discipline

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Are you using your spiritual gift(s) for the church's common good, or mostly for yourself?
2. How do you personally hold gifts and love together, since gifts without love profit nothing?
3. Have you ever needed church discipline, or needed to be part of restoring someone?
4. What would change if you saw your gift as belonging to the whole body, not just you?
5. Where is there an unmet need in your church that your gift could serve?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. What does 1 Corinthians 12:7 say gifts are given for?
2. Why must gifts be exercised "in love," per this lesson's reference to 1 Corinthians 13?
3. List the five roles named in Ephesians 4 for equipping the church.
4. What is the stated purpose of equipping the church with these gifts/roles?
5. Explain, in your own words, why gifts exist for the body, not the individual.

M07L08 — What the Church Is/Is Not & Church as Community/Mission

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you ever treated the church as merely a building rather than a people?
2. What false expectation of the church has led you to disappointment before?
3. How would correcting a wrong view of the church change your commitment to it?
4. Where do you see the church functioning as genuine community in your life?
5. What's one way you could contribute to the church's mission, not just attend its gatherings?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. List one thing this lesson says the church is NOT.
2. What verse is cited regarding God not living in buildings made by hands?
3. Why does the lesson say false views of the church lead to abandonment when it fails to meet unbiblical standards?
4. According to this lesson, what IS the church, properly understood?
5. Explain, in your own words, the danger of holding unbiblical expectations of the church.

M07REVIEW — Module 7 Discussion & Review

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. How has your view of the church changed through this module?
2. Where do you need to move from casual attendee to committed member?
3. What's one practical way you could serve your local church this month?
4. How do you now understand the relationship between the universal and local church?
5. What false expectation of the church do you need to release?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Name all eight topics covered in Module 7, in order.
2. Explain the difference between the universal and local church.
3. What are the two main leadership offices in the local church, and their functions?
4. Why does membership matter, according to this module?
5. Summarize Module 7's overall message in 2-3 sentences, in your own words.

MODULE 8: WATER BAPTISM AND THE LORD'S SUPPER

M08L01 — Ordinance Definition

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you participated in baptism or communion without fully understanding what it signified?
2. What does it mean to you that these ordinances symbolize grace already received, not grace being earned?
3. Why do you think Christ commanded these specific, physical practices rather than only inward belief?
4. How do you personally experience these ordinances — as ritual, or as meaningful symbol?
5. What would change if you approached the next ordinance you take part in more thoughtfully?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define "ordinance" as this lesson presents it.
2. How do ordinances differ from sacraments in some other traditions, per this lesson?
3. Why are ordinances important, according to this lesson?
4. What does the lesson say ordinances do NOT do (convey grace automatically)?
5. Explain, in your own words, what ordinances symbolize.

M08L02 — Water Baptism (Definition & Importance)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you been baptized? What did it mean to you at the time, and what does it mean now?
2. What does identification with Christ's death, burial, and resurrection mean to you personally?
3. If you haven't been baptized as a believer, what's holding you back?
4. How does baptism mark a clear before-and-after in someone's story?
5. What would you want someone watching your baptism to understand about your faith?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define water baptism as this lesson presents it.
2. What three realities does baptism signify, per this lesson?
3. What verse commands baptism as part of making disciples?
4. Who practiced baptism, according to this lesson (the church, the apostles)?
5. Explain, in your own words, why baptism is commanded, not optional.

M08L03 — Mode of Baptism: Immersion

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Why do you think the specific mode (immersion) matters to the symbolism, not just the ritual?
2. What does "going under" and "coming up" personally represent to you about your own death and resurrection with Christ?
3. Have you seen or experienced a baptism by immersion? What was that like?
4. Where do you need to more fully embrace the reality of dying to your old self?
5. What part of your "old life" still needs to be buried?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define immersion and its Greek root (baptizo).
2. What biblical precedent is cited for immersion (Acts 8)?
3. What does going under the water picture, per this lesson?
4. What does coming up out of the water picture?
5. Explain, in your own words, why immersion (not sprinkling) fits the symbolism described.

M08L04 — Meaning of Baptism: Identification

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. What does it mean to you that you were "buried with Christ" through baptism?
2. Where in your life do you still need to live like the old "you" actually died?
3. How does public identification with Christ cost you something in your specific context?
4. What would change if you lived daily aware of being raised to "a new life"?
5. Who have you publicly identified with Christ in front of, and how did that feel?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. What does baptism publicly identify the believer with, per this lesson?
2. What passage (Romans 6) is cited to support this meaning?
3. Explain, in your own words, what "buried with him through baptism into death" means.
4. What does the lesson say this identification enables ("a new life")?
5. Summarize the connection between Christ's resurrection and the believer's new life.

M08L05 — Effects of Baptism & Believer's Baptism

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Does your assurance of salvation rest on baptism, or on faith alone? Why does that distinction matter?
2. How has baptism (or the anticipation of it) strengthened your own assurance?
3. What does it mean to you that baptism "testifies" to the world about your faith?
4. Where do you need your faith confirmed, even though baptism itself doesn't save you?
5. How does being incorporated into the visible church change your sense of belonging?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. List the five effects of baptism named in this lesson (testify, confirm, incorporate, picture, pledge).
2. Does baptism save a person, according to this lesson? What verse supports this?
3. What does baptism testify to the world, per this lesson?
4. What does baptism confirm for the believer personally?
5. Explain, in your own words, why baptism doesn't save but still matters deeply.

M08L06 — The Lord's Supper (Eucharist/Communion)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. What does taking communion currently mean to you — habit, obligation, or genuine remembrance?
2. How does eating bread and drinking the cup help you remember Christ's sacrifice more than words alone?
3. What does it mean to you that this ordinance continues "until He returns"?
4. Where do you need to slow down and truly reflect during your next communion?
5. How does communion connect you to other believers sharing in the same remembrance?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define the Lord's Supper as this lesson presents it.
2. What do the bread and cup represent, per this lesson?
3. What verse connects the Lord's Supper to proclaiming Christ's death "until he comes"?
4. What does "communion" mean in the context of this ordinance (shared participation)?
5. Explain, in your own words, why this ordinance is called "continuing," unlike baptism.

M08L07 — The Last Supper

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. What strikes you most about Jesus instituting this ordinance the night before His crucifixion?
2. How does knowing the Lord's Supper fulfills Passover deepen its meaning for you?
3. What does it mean to you that the Passover looked forward to Christ, but communion looks back?
4. Have you read the actual Last Supper accounts recently? What stood out?
5. How would you explain to someone why this specific meal matters so much?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define the Last Supper and when it occurred, per this lesson.
2. List the four passages cited for the Last Supper's institution.
3. Why was this meal eaten during Passover, according to this lesson?
4. What does the lesson mean by "the Passover looked forward to Christ; the Lord's Supper looks back"?
5. Explain, in your own words, how Jesus is the fulfillment of Passover.

M08REVIEW — Module 8 Discussion & Review

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you been baptized, and if not, what's your next step?
2. How has your understanding of communion deepened through this module?
3. What's the difference, for you now, between an ordinance and something that saves you?
4. Which of these two ordinances (baptism, communion) do you want to engage more thoughtfully?
5. What's one thing you'll do differently the next time you take communion or witness a baptism?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Name all seven topics covered in Module 8, in order.
2. Explain the meaning of baptism as identification with Christ.
3. What does the Lord's Supper proclaim, and until when?
4. Why are ordinances described as symbols, not means of earning grace?
5. Summarize Module 8's overall message in 2-3 sentences, in your own words.

MODULE 9: THE CHRISTIAN AND SIN

M09L01 — Hamartiology (Doctrine of Sin)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Do you currently appreciate salvation as much as you understand what you're saved from?
2. What does "missing the mark" of God's standard look like in your own life this week?
3. Where do you minimize sin rather than take it seriously?
4. How does understanding sin properly change how you pursue holiness?
5. What's one area where you've stopped noticing sin because it's become familiar?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define hamartiology and its Greek root (hamartia).
2. What does "missing the mark" mean, per this lesson?
3. Why is this study necessary, according to the lesson?
4. List the aspects of sin this lesson says hamartiology addresses (origin, nature, effects, guilt, remedy).
5. Explain, in your own words, why we can't appreciate salvation without understanding sin.

M09L02 — Sin Definition & Original Sin

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Which category of sin (commission, omission, attitude) do you struggle with most right now?
2. Where do you sin through inaction — failing to do what you know you should?
3. What wrong motive or desire has surfaced in you recently, even without an outward act?
4. How seriously do you personally treat sin as being "against God," not just against people?
5. What's one specific sin you need to name honestly rather than excuse?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define sin as this lesson presents it.
2. List the four categories of sin named (commission, omission, attitude, nature).
3. What verse addresses sin by omission?
4. What verses address sin as wrong attitude/motive?
5. Explain, in your own words, why sin is ultimately "against God."

M09L03 — Actual Sin & The Flesh (Sarx)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Where do you feel the ongoing war between your new nature and your old flesh most acutely?
2. What does it mean to you that you're "positionally holy but practically becoming holy"?
3. Have you grown discouraged by remaining sin, forgetting this process is ongoing until glory?
4. What specific sinful pattern still flows from your old nature, even after new birth?
5. How does patience with your own progress differ from excusing sin?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define actual sin and how it relates to original sin, per this lesson.
2. What verse describes the flesh warring against the Spirit?
3. Why do believers still sin, according to this lesson?
4. What does "positionally holy but practically becoming holy" mean?
5. Explain, in your own words, why complete freedom from sin's presence awaits glory.

M09L04 — Temptation

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Which of the three sources of temptation (world, flesh, devil) do you face most often?
2. How does knowing Jesus was tempted yet without sin change how you view your own struggles?
3. Where do external pressures (the world) most tempt you to compromise?
4. What internal desire (the flesh) do you need to be most honest about?
5. How can you "escape" your most common temptation, practically, this week?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define temptation as this lesson presents it.
2. List the three sources of temptation named in this lesson.
3. Why is temptation not sin, according to this lesson?
4. What verse supports Christ's ability to empathize with our weaknesses?
5. Explain, in your own words, the difference between being tempted and giving in to sin.

M09L05 — Mortification (Putting Sin to Death)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. What specific sin do you need to actively "put to death" rather than passively hope disappears?
2. Where have you been passive about sin, expecting it to fade without effort?
3. What does "by the Spirit" add to this process that willpower alone can't provide?
4. What's one concrete action you could take this week to mortify a specific sin?
5. How does knowing this is your responsibility, not just God's automatic work, change your approach?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define mortification as this lesson presents it.
2. What verse commands putting to death "whatever belongs to your earthly nature"?
3. Is mortification the Spirit's work alone, or the believer's active responsibility? Explain using Romans 8:13.
4. What warning does the lesson give about living according to the flesh?
5. Explain, in your own words, what "putting sin to death" looks like practically.

M09L06 — Confession of Sin

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Is there a specific sin you've been avoiding confessing, even privately to God?
2. What keeps you from confessing to another person when appropriate, not just to God?
3. How does unconfessed sin currently affect your sense of closeness with God?
4. What would genuine confession, not vague guilt, look like for you this week?
5. Who is a trustworthy person you could confess a specific struggle to?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define confession of sin as this lesson presents it.
2. What verse promises forgiveness and purification upon confession?
3. What does unconfessed sin break, according to this lesson (fellowship, not relationship)?
4. What three elements does confession involve, per this lesson (acknowledgment, agreement, responsibility)?
5. Explain, in your own words, the difference between confessing to God and confessing to others.

M09L07 — Repentance & Forgiveness

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you experienced remorse without actual repentance (turning away)? What was the difference?
2. What sin do you need to genuinely turn from, not just feel bad about?
3. How does knowing repentance is "necessary for salvation" change how seriously you take it?
4. Where have you received forgiveness you still haven't fully accepted for yourself?
5. What would real, volitional forsaking of a specific sin look like for you?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define repentance and its Greek root (metanoia).
2. List the three components of genuine repentance named (intellectual, emotional, volitional).
3. Why does the lesson say Judas was remorseful but did not repent?
4. What verse connects repentance to sins being "wiped out"?
5. Explain, in your own words, why repentance is transformation, not mere remorse.

M09L08 — Positional Sanctification, Progressive Sanctification & Victory

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Do you see yourself as "a saint who sins" or "a sinner trying to be good"? Which identity do you live from?
2. How does your position before God (already holy) empower your daily fight against sin?
3. Where do you need to fight from victory already secured, rather than for victory not yet achieved?
4. What's the difference for you between positional and progressive sanctification?
5. What would change if your identity was rooted in "saint," not "sinner"?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define positional sanctification as this lesson presents it.
2. What verse is cited regarding being washed, sanctified, and justified?
3. What does the lesson say is our identity by position, even when we sin?
4. Explain, in your own words, the difference between positional and progressive sanctification.
5. How does this identity "empower victory," according to the lesson?

M09REVIEW — Module 9 Discussion & Review

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. What's one specific sin this module has helped you name and take seriously?
2. How has your understanding of your identity (saint vs. sinner) shifted?
3. Where do you need to actively mortify sin rather than passively wait for change?
4. What does genuine repentance look like for you regarding a current struggle?
5. What's one practical step toward victory you'll take this week?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Name all eight topics covered in Module 9, in order.
2. Explain the difference between temptation and sin.
3. What is mortification, and whose responsibility is it?
4. Explain positional versus progressive sanctification in your own words.
5. Summarize Module 9's overall message in 2-3 sentences, in your own words.

MODULE 10: SHARING YOUR FAITH

M10L01 — Evangelism Definition

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. When did you last share the gospel with someone who didn't already believe?
2. What fear or hesitation keeps you from evangelism?
3. Does evangelism feel like information transfer or urgent invitation to you right now?
4. Who is someone in your life who needs to hear this good news?
5. What would change if you saw evangelism as commanded, not optional?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define evangelism and its Greek root (euangelizomai).
2. What is evangelism's aim, according to this lesson?
3. What verse commands making disciples of all nations?
4. Why does the lesson say evangelism is "not mere information transfer"?
5. Explain, in your own words, why evangelism is essential, not optional.

M10L02 — The Gospel (Euangelion) & Gospel Outline

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Could you explain the gospel clearly to someone right now, in under a minute?
2. What part of the gospel (Christ's life, death, resurrection) do you personally find hardest to explain?
3. Why does it matter that the gospel is announcement ("it is done"), not advice ("do this")?
4. How does knowing the gospel solves humanity's greatest problem change your urgency to share it?
5. What's one person you could practice explaining the gospel to this week?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define the gospel and its Greek root (euangelion).
2. Why is the gospel "announcement," not "advice," per this lesson?
3. What does the gospel center on, according to this lesson?
4. Why is the gospel called "good news"?
5. Explain, in your own words, what makes the gospel objectively true, not just subjectively helpful.

M10L03 — Witnessing & Apologetics

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. What's your own testimony — what has Christ actually done in your life?
2. Have you ever shared your testimony with someone? What happened?
3. Why is your personal experience something "no one can dispute"?
4. Where do gospel truth and your personal story intersect most powerfully?
5. What's one part of your testimony you could share more clearly?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define witnessing as this lesson presents it.
2. How does witnessing complement gospel proclamation, per this lesson?
3. What verse is cited regarding "what we have seen and heard"?
4. Why is personal testimony effective, according to this lesson?
5. Explain, in your own words, the difference between witnessing and proclaiming the gospel.

M10L04 — Missions & The Call to Missions

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you ever considered whether God is calling you to cross-cultural missions?
2. Where do you see unreached people groups mentioned or represented in your own awareness?
3. What does it mean to you that people can't call on someone they haven't heard of?
4. How could you support missions even if you're not called to go yourself?
5. What's one way you could pray specifically for unreached peoples this week?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define missions as this lesson presents it.
2. What logical chain does Romans 10 present regarding hearing, believing, and calling on Christ?
3. Why is missions essential, according to this lesson?
4. What does missions involve, per this lesson (cross-cultural evangelism, church planting, discipleship)?
5. Explain, in your own words, why someone must be sent for the gospel to reach unreached peoples.

M10L05 — The Condition of the Lost & Lifestyle/Friendship Evangelism

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Does the lifeguard illustration change your sense of urgency about people around you?
2. How would you describe the actual spiritual condition of someone you know who doesn't believe?
3. Where do you build genuine friendships as a context for sharing faith naturally?
4. What keeps you from actively "diving in" for someone spiritually drowning?
5. Who is someone near you that this urgency applies to right now?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. What illustration does this lesson use to describe evangelistic urgency (the lifeguard)?
2. List what this lesson says is true of all humans apart from Christ (dead in sin, etc.).
3. Why does the lesson say "how much more urgent is our mission"?
4. What does lifestyle/friendship evangelism look like, per this lesson's framing?
5. Explain, in your own words, why the lost's condition demands urgency, not passivity.

M10L06 — Confrontational/Apologetic Evangelism & Overcoming Fear

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you ever felt God prompt you toward a bolder, more direct evangelism opportunity?
2. What fear specifically holds you back from confrontational evangelism?
3. Where do you encounter people who would never enter a church, and how could you reach them?
4. How comfortable are you defending your faith intellectually (apologetics)?
5. What's one public space where you could be more intentional about the gospel?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define confrontational evangelism as this lesson presents it.
2. Why is confrontational evangelism necessary, per this lesson?
3. What biblical example is given of Paul practicing this (synagogues, marketplaces, Areopagus)?
4. Define apologetic evangelism as introduced in this lesson.
5. Explain, in your own words, to whom confrontational evangelism is particularly aimed.

M10L07 — Practical Evangelism Skills & Spirit-Empowered Witness

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. What specifically makes you afraid to share your faith — rejection, awkwardness, not knowing what to say?
2. Have you experienced persecution or pushback for your faith? How did you respond?
3. Where do you need the Spirit's empowerment more than your own confidence to witness?
4. What's one practical skill from this lesson you could apply this week?
5. How does knowing evangelism is "counter-cultural" change your expectations when sharing?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define evangelistic fear as this lesson presents it.
2. Why is evangelistic fear common, according to this lesson?
3. What verse is cited regarding persecution for living godly in Christ Jesus?
4. List one way this lesson says fear is overcome.
5. Explain, in your own words, why evangelism invites opposition.

M10REVIEW — Module 10 Discussion & Review

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. How has your urgency to share your faith changed through this module?
2. What fear do you most need to overcome to witness more boldly?
3. Who is someone specific you now feel prompted to reach out to?
4. What's the difference, for you, between friendship evangelism and confrontational evangelism?
5. What's one practical step you'll take this week to share your faith?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Name all seven topics covered in Module 10, in order.
2. Explain the difference between witnessing and proclaiming the gospel.
3. What are the two evangelism approaches (confrontational, friendship/lifestyle) and when is each used?
4. Why does the lesson connect missions to Romans 10's logical chain?
5. Summarize Module 10's overall message in 2-3 sentences, in your own words.

MODULE 11: SPIRITUAL DISCIPLINES

M11L01 — Spiritual Disciplines Overview & Disciplines of Abstinence

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Do you view disciplines as earning God's favor, or positioning yourself for His grace?
2. Which spiritual discipline do you currently practice most consistently?
3. Where have you neglected disciplines and felt the spiritual dryness that followed?
4. What does "training yourself to be godly" look like practically for you?
5. What's one discipline you sense God inviting you into more deeply right now?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define spiritual disciplines as this lesson presents them.
2. Are disciplines meritorious or instrumental, per this lesson? Explain the difference.
3. What verse commands "training yourself to be godly"?
4. What does the lesson mean by disciplines being "means of grace"?
5. Explain, in your own words, why disciplines are necessary for growth.

M11L02 — Disciplines of Abstinence (Fasting, Sabbath, Secrecy)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Have you ever practiced solitude intentionally? What did you notice?
2. What noise or distraction most crowds out your ability to hear God?
3. Where could you create space this week for deeper communion with God, away from others?
4. What's your honest reaction to the idea of fasting or Sabbath rest?
5. Why do you think Jesus modeled solitude so deliberately, even with His limited time on earth?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define solitude as this lesson presents it.
2. What example from Mark 1:35 illustrates solitude?
3. Why is solitude essential, according to this lesson?
4. What does solitude create space for, per this lesson?
5. Explain, in your own words, why abstinence disciplines involve "letting go."

M11L03 — Disciplines of Engagement (Study, Meditation)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. How would you describe your current study of Scripture — disciplined, occasional, or absent?
2. What does it mean to you that we cannot love what we do not know?
3. Where has meditation on Scripture (not just reading) actually transformed your thinking?
4. What's one passage you could study more deeply this week, not just skim?
5. How does the renewal of your mind (Romans 12) connect to actual life transformation for you?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define study as this lesson presents it.
2. What verse commands presenting yourself as "one approved"?
3. Why is study necessary, according to this lesson?
4. What does the lesson say transformation requires (renewal of the mind)?
5. Explain, in your own words, the connection between knowing God's Word and loving/obeying Him.

M11L04 — Disciplines of Engagement (Prayer, Worship, Service)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Is worship, for you, mostly corporate (gathered) or private (personal), or both?
2. What does it mean to you that you were "created for worship" and will worship something regardless?
3. Where do you serve others as an act of worship, not obligation?
4. What competes with God for your worship right now, even subtly?
5. How could you make worship a more intentional daily discipline, not just a Sunday event?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define worship as this lesson presents it.
2. What verse commands worshiping and serving God only?
3. Why is worship required, according to this lesson?
4. What does the lesson say humans are "created for"?
5. Explain, in your own words, the difference between corporate and private worship.

M11L05 — Disciplines of Engagement (Confession, Submission, Guidance, Celebration)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Where do you resist submission to legitimate authority in your life?
2. How does modern culture's exaltation of autonomy show up in your own heart?
3. What would it look like to genuinely submit to one another "out of reverence for Christ"?
4. Where do you need godly guidance rather than relying solely on your own judgment?
5. What's something worth celebrating in your spiritual life right now that you've overlooked?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define submission as this lesson presents it.
2. What verse commands submitting to one another out of reverence for Christ?
3. Why is submission described as "counter-cultural"?
4. What does modern culture exalt instead of submission, per this lesson?
5. Explain, in your own words, what biblical submission requires.

M11L06 — Means of Grace & The Fasted Life/Practice of Withdrawal

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Do you ever slip into legalism, thinking disciplines earn God's favor?
2. Do you ever slip into passivity, thinking growth happens without any effort from you?
3. How do you personally hold together grace and effort in your spiritual growth?
4. What does "the fasted life" or withdrawal look like practically for you?
5. Where do you need to "work out" your salvation more intentionally this week?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define "means of grace" as this lesson presents it.
2. Why is this distinction critical, according to this lesson (avoiding legalism and passivity)?
3. What verse commands working out your salvation "with fear and trembling"?
4. What does the lesson say disciplines position us to do (receive what God freely gives)?
5. Explain, in your own words, the balance between grace and effort in spiritual growth.

M11L07 — Bible Intake Methods & Christian Stewardship (Tithing, Volunteer Service)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Which Bible intake method (hearing, reading, studying, memorizing, meditating) do you practice least?
2. How does variety in engaging Scripture serve your specific learning style?
3. Where do you currently practice stewardship — of time, money, or service?
4. What would it look like to tithe or give more intentionally as an act of worship?
5. What's one volunteer service opportunity you could commit to?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. List the five Bible intake methods named in this lesson.
2. Why does the lesson say variety in methods matters?
3. What does hearing build, per this lesson?
4. What does memorizing accomplish, according to this lesson?
5. Explain, in your own words, how Christian stewardship (tithing, service) connects to spiritual discipline.

M11REVIEW — Module 11 Discussion & Review

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Which spiritual discipline from this module do you most need to build into your life?
2. Where have you confused earning favor with positioning yourself for grace?
3. What's one discipline of abstinence and one discipline of engagement you'll commit to this month?
4. How has your view of spiritual growth changed through this module?
5. What's one concrete rhythm you'll build into your week starting now?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Name all seven topics covered in Module 11, in order.
2. Explain the difference between disciplines of abstinence and disciplines of engagement.
3. What does "means of grace" mean, and why does it matter?
4. List three specific disciplines and briefly define each.
5. Summarize Module 11's overall message in 2-3 sentences, in your own words.

MODULE 12: LIVING WITH ETERNITY IN VIEW

M12L01 — Eschatology (Doctrine of Last Things)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. How often do you actually think about eternity in your daily decisions?
2. What does it mean to you that eschatology is "practical theology," not mere speculation?
3. Where would your priorities shift if you lived more consciously aware that everything will be destroyed and remade?
4. What questions about the future do you most want answered?
5. How does eternity shape what you consider truly important right now?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define eschatology and its scope, per this lesson.
2. List what eschatology addresses, according to this lesson (death, resurrection, judgment, heaven, hell, eternal state).
3. Why does the lesson say eschatology is not mere speculation?
4. What verse is cited regarding everything being destroyed?
5. Explain, in your own words, how eschatology shapes how we live now.

M12L02 — The Return of Christ (Second Coming/Parousia)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Does the certainty of Christ's return actually shape how you live day to day?
2. What would you want to be doing when Christ returns?
3. How does this promise bring you comfort in current hardship?
4. Where do you live as though Christ's return is distant or irrelevant?
5. What's one area of your life you'd want to change if you knew He was returning today?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define the Parousia (Return of Christ) as this lesson presents it.
2. What verse from Acts 1:11 is cited regarding His return?
3. Why is Christ's return certain, according to this lesson?
4. What will Christ's return accomplish, per this lesson (judge, consummate, establish)?
5. Explain, in your own words, why this promise matters practically.

M12L03 — The Rapture & The Second Coming (Glorious Appearing)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Has confusion about end-times events ever caused you fear rather than hope?
2. What comfort does distinguishing the Rapture from the Second Coming bring you?
3. How do you personally hold hope and readiness together regarding Christ's return?
4. Where do you need more clarity on what Scripture actually teaches versus popular assumptions?
5. What would genuine readiness for Christ's return look like in your life this week?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define the Second Coming (Glorious Appearing) as this lesson presents it.
2. What verse from Matthew 24:30 is cited regarding this event?
3. How does this lesson distinguish the Rapture from the Second Coming?
4. What will the Second Coming accomplish, per this lesson (judge nations, defeat enemies, establish kingdom)?
5. Explain, in your own words, why this distinction matters for understanding end times.

M12L04 — The Resurrection & Resurrection Body

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. How does the promise of bodily resurrection shape your view of physical death?
2. What comfort does knowing your body itself will be raised bring you?
3. Where do you fear death, and how does this lesson address that fear?
4. What would it mean to truly live "not amazed" but confident about this future?
5. How does resurrection hope change how you grieve loss?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define the resurrection as this lesson presents it.
2. What verse from John 5:28-29 is cited regarding this doctrine?
3. What two destinies does the lesson describe (life vs. condemnation)?
4. Why does the lesson say we should "not be amazed" at this truth?
5. Explain, in your own words, why bodily resurrection matters, not just spiritual survival.

M12L05 — The Judgment (Two Destinies, Believer's Judgment, Unbeliever's Judgment)

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. Does the reality of future judgment change how seriously you take your choices now?
2. How do you personally understand the difference between the Judgment Seat of Christ and the Great White Throne?
3. Where do you live as though your works don't matter, forgetting future evaluation?
4. What comfort does knowing believers are evaluated for reward, not condemnation, bring you?
5. What would you want your life's works to reflect when evaluated?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define "the Judgment" as this lesson presents it, including its multiple aspects.
2. What is the Judgment Seat of Christ (Bema), and who does it apply to?
3. What is the Great White Throne, and who does it apply to?
4. What verses support each of these two judgments?
5. Explain, in your own words, why judgment must exist.

M12L06 — Heaven & The New Heavens and New Earth

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. What draws you most to the promise of heaven — God's presence, or the absence of suffering?
2. How does the hope of no more sin or suffering shape how you endure hardship now?
3. What does "seeing His face" mean to you personally as an eternal hope?
4. Where do you need heaven's hope to reframe a current struggle?
5. How does knowing heaven ultimately comes TO earth change how you view this present world?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define heaven as this lesson presents it.
2. What verse from Revelation 22:4 is cited regarding seeing God's face?
3. What verse from Revelation 21:27 is cited regarding purity?
4. List three reasons this lesson gives for heaven's desirability.
5. Explain, in your own words, the relationship between heaven and the new heavens/new earth.

M12L07 — Hell, The Millennium & Living with Eternal Perspective

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)

1. How does the reality of hell affect your urgency to share the gospel?
2. Where do you need to live today with genuine eternal perspective, not just temporary concerns?
3. What does it mean to you that God respects human choice, even eternally?
4. How does this whole module change what you consider truly important in daily life?
5. What's one specific way you'll live differently this week because eternity is real?

Assignment (comprehension check — peer evaluated)

1. Define hell as this lesson presents it.
2. What verse from Matthew 25:46 is cited regarding eternal punishment versus eternal life?
3. List the three reasons this lesson gives for why hell must exist (justice, freedom, holiness).
4. What does "living with eternal perspective" mean, according to this lesson?
5. Explain, in your own words, how this module's teaching should shape daily life now.

M12REVIEW — Module 12 Discussion & Review

Reflection (personal, private — text, audio, or video)
